
PRESS RELEASE

After a successful set of events in 2016, Coffee House Sessions with Grace Matata (“CHS”) is starting its second season at the Woodberry Café in Oysterbay, Dar es Salaam.

CHS Season 2 is stronger and better with six planned events taking place the second Saturday of each month and starting on the 12th August 2017.

A night of live soulful and jazzy music in an open-air cozy atmosphere, CHS aims at bringing quality music to a sophisticated audience.

Hosted by Tanzanian leading singer Grace Matata and her band, CHS will showcase surprise guest acts at each event.

Grace Matata is a born and raised Tanzanian singer and songwriter based in Dar es Salaam. Her musical journey started in 2010 when she got signed by the record label Music Lab (M-Lab) under the media group Media Kings.

Her music is a unique blend of Swahili soul, R&B and Jazz with a special touch of poetry and light heartwarming melodies. Her first album “Nyakati” was released in 2013 and has made Grace noted by the international audience while solidifying her image as a unique female artist in the Tanzanian music scene.

Other notable music releases by Grace include “Hello” with Maua Sama (2014), “Tabibu” ft Mwasiti (2015), “Utanifaa” ft Emmagripa (2016) and she is now about to release “Dakika moja” featuring Tanzanian pre-eminent rapper Wakazi. The song will be available on most music stores and streaming services across the world starting from the 11th August with a world-wide streaming exclusive on Boomplay Music launching on the 9th August 2017 at 8am (EAT).

Grace has recently signed with the Pan African artist management company Panamusiq.
